Roll Call Vote: Council members Bibens, Bluth, Doran, Quattrone, Thibault and Woods voted yes.

Agenda approved as amended.

Mayor Kirson opened Public Comment Period I and the following individuals spoke:

Eugene Sarafin, 628 S. Main Street – inquired as to who called this meeting; Council members Doran and Woods responded that they requested it. Councilmember Woods clarified that she requested the meeting and asked Council to inform the Mayor or Council President if they wish to hold the meeting. Mr. Sarafin then noted that he wants to know so when he files a lawsuit about this meeting he will know who is responsible.

The Borough Attorney clarified the process for Council to call a meeting and assured Mr. Sarafin that the proper process was followed.

Mr. Sarafin then accused Council of collusion to which the Borough Attorney replied that there absolutely was no collusion. Mr. Sarafin then inquired as to whom the four Council members were that called the meeting, to which the Borough Attorney replied that a majority of Council called the meeting.

Mr. Sarafin again asked who the four Council members were that called the meeting and proceeded to comment that this meeting is to fire Mr. Theokas, who is very competent; and if you fire him there will be a recall of Council.

Walter Sikorski, 326 North Main Street – noted that the comments he is making are his own. He then commented on Mr. Theokas' previous experience on Borough Council, institutional experience and familiarity with Hightstown and its residents; he does not believe that public participation was expected at this meeting and it appears that Council is making a rash decision. Council should listen to the professionals and residents.

J. P. Gibbons, 602 N. Main Street – noted that it appears that people perceive this as a lynch mob meeting, however there was an executive meeting in August on the same topic to which this appears to be a follow-up; this is Council's responsibility and their charge.

Kathleen Gravely, 40 Westerlea– noted that she does not know the basis of personnel decisions, but the public should not interfere, it is a Council responsibility.

Jeff Bond, 210 South Main Street – noted that he has not been to a Council meeting since he left office, but felt this was an important matter. This meeting was kept under wraps, and it is being held right after the election; it appears that you are trying to get rid of Mike Theokas, which is a shame. He commented that Mike is doing a good job, this is very political and Council will pay in the long run; you are showing that Council has no direction.

There being no further comments, Mayor Kirson closed the public comment period.
