New & Old Business:

1. RBG Hightstown, LLC – The Lofts at Hightstown Phase 1:

HPC's response to Preliminary & Final Site Plan for Phase 1 of Mill project –

- Questions about what color palette is proposed for Townhomes. HPC hopes the proposed colors are comparable to existing Hightstown's period homes. The modern design is fine, but we don't want colors wildly different from the colors used on the period homes.
- The proposed windows on the townhomes need to be more in line with the surrounding homes. The period houses have large divided double-hung windows.
- The vertical wood siding proposed on the Townhomes is not consistent with surrounding homes.
- Happy that the red brick mill's exterior is to remain untouched.

2. Pole locations on Stockton Street:

Pole locations still needed to be located for the decorative banners- Mr Musing will provide. The remaining hardware and poles have been delivered for hanging the banners.

Committee Reports:

Mr. Musing confirmed that Borough Council agreed to $4,000 for the HPC's 2018 budget.

Ms. Colavecchio informed the HPC that the Planning Board's special meeting April 30, 2018 at 7:30pm will start with an informal discussion with Javier Blanco and Ino Gomez discussing their ideas for subdividing and building two new houses on the 421 North Main Street property. The HPC is encouraged to attend this meeting to let the potential buyer know HPC's desire is to renovate the existing house and not demolish it.

Adjournment: Ms. Colavecchio motioned to adjourn at 7:58 pm, Chairwoman Mair seconded, all in favor.
